

Press Release

For Immediate Release: February 1, 2005

For more information contact: Lynne Balkema 219-980-4800

Consumer Credit Counseling Service of NW Indiana, Inc. (CCCS) to host First-Time Homebuyer Workshop

Northwest Indiana – Are you tired of paying rent? Homeownership is easier than you think! Stop paying rent and start building a future. In continuing efforts to educate consumers on Homeownership, CCCS of NW Indiana will host a First-Time Homebuyer workshop on 3 consecutive Tuesdays 2/8/05, 2/15/05 and 2/22/05 from 6:00 to 8:00 pm. You will learn how to create a budget, how to rebuild your credit, how to get financed, and how to shop for a home along with many other topics. Speakers include a realtor and a licensed home inspector. You will receive a certificate after completing all 3 sessions. This certificate could help you secure down payment assistance from local, state and federal agencies.

The sessions will be held at Consumer Credit Counseling Service of NW Indiana, 3637 Grant Street, Gary, IN 46408. To register or for more information please call 219-980-4800 or e-mail at LBALKEMA@CCCSNWI.ORG. Space is limited.